The University Libraries Advisory Council (ULAC) has developed a strategic plan based on the UNC System’s goals for 2017-2022: Access, Affordability and Efficiency, Student Success, Economic Impact and Community Engagement, and Excellent and Diverse Institutions. Covering the period 2018-2022, the ULAC plan includes goals that relate to one or more of the five areas. In addition, ULAC finalized objectives for the current fiscal year and developed a “Playbook for Success”, which documents the organization’s role within the UNC System.

ULAC’s thematic goal for 2018-2019 is

UNC System Libraries: Setting and achieving higher expectations through vision, commitment, and participation.
